BLUEBIRD

Bluebird, an institution on the King's Road, one of Chelsea's favourite destinations for drinking, dining, and partying. Originally the birth place of the Bluebird Motor Company famous for land speed records. Now it boasts a spacious Café & Courtyard perfect for people-watching, while upstairs the chic cocktail bar and restaurant serves a modern European menu. This ever-changing menu offers plenty of options to indulge, and there's a hell of a cocktail list, to boot!

FIUME

An integral part of the unfolding story of Battersea Power Station, Fiume has fast become a firm local favourite with its authentic, fresh Italian flavours. Fiume, the Italian word for 'river', a tribute to its location on the banks of the Thames, is made up of an elegant bar and restaurant and an open kitchen with traditional pizza oven. The terrace overlooking the Thames has Battersea Power Station as a backdrop – a truly idyllic spot to enjoy fritto misto, pinsa, or a party with friends, family or colleagues.

BLUEPRINT EVENT SPACE

Positioned on the south bank of the Thames, next to Butlers Wharf, Blueprint is a hidden gem that occupies the gloriously bright space on the first floor of what used to be London's iconic design museum, and is the perfect spot for corporate and private events as well as wedding celebrations.

During the warmer months, its glass doors open up creating a sense of alfresco dining, further enhanced by its small but beautiful terrace. During the cooler months, its floor-to-ceiling windows offer spectacular views of Tower Bridge and the river Thames.

QUEENSYARD

Queensyard is an American restaurant in the heart of New York, where the layout is inspired by the rooms of an English country home. It is an all-day dining destination with a full-service café as well as a low key wine bar. The dining room offers a cosy but elegant space for dinner and weekend brunch service, while the beautiful bar & lounge is the perfect spot for after-work drinks.

Our semi-private dining areas provide the perfect setting for receptions, filming, and cocktail parties; accommodating up to 110 in the main dining room.
